

JOB OPENING for FRENCH TEACHER

2017 – 2018 Academic Year

Georgetown Visitation Preparatory School invites applications for an 80% (4 sections) position as a French teacher in the Foreign Language Department for the 2017 – 2018 academic year. Located in Washington, DC, and founded in 1799, Georgetown Visitation Preparatory School educates young women in grades 9 – 12 in a faith-centered community focused on educational excellence and rooted in the Roman Catholic faith and Salesian tradition.

Successful candidates should have a strong academic background in French language and previous teaching experience, along with energy, enthusiasm, and a desire to communicate and work with young women. Candidates must also be willing to work closely with departmental colleagues in a collaborative setting.

To be considered, please email resume, cover letter - including salary requirements, and Employment Application (found on the employment page of www.visi.org) to [hiring@visi.org](mailto: hiring@visi.org).
