

TWO JOB OPENINGS

Full-time Math Substitute

Georgetown Visitation Preparatory School invites applications for two substitute teaching positions in the Math Department. One position runs from April 7, 2017 – May 22, 2017. The other runs from April 18, 2017 – May 22, 2017. Located in Washington, DC, and founded in 1799, Georgetown Visitation Preparatory School educates young women in grades 9 – 12 in a faith-centered community focused on educational excellence and rooted in the Roman Catholic faith and Salesian tradition.

Successful candidates should have a strong academic background and previous teaching experience in math, along with energy, enthusiasm, and a desire to communicate and work with young women. Candidates must also be willing to work closely with department colleagues in a collaborative setting and to apply Socratic and interactive teaching methods in the classroom.

To be considered, please email resume, cover letter - including salary requirements, and Employment Application (found on the employment page of www.visi.org) to [hiring@visi.org](mailto: hiring@visi.org).
