

FACULTY JOB DESCRIPTION

Position/Title:	Middle School Social Studies Teacher, Upper School History Teacher (Long Term Substitute)
Appointment:	Likely to begin on September 22 nd and last up to six weeks
Reports To:	Director of the Middle School

Laurel School seeks talented faculty who will put our students first and strive to make a difference in their lives. We seek to attract culturally and academically diverse faculty who thrive on being engaged participants in our community. The most successful candidates see opportunities before problems, can laugh at themselves and succeed in a fast paced, forward-thinking educational environment. We are particularly interested in attracting teachers who have lived internationally, who have experience in residential settings, who view themselves as entrepreneurial, flexible, curious and creative. Laurel lives the mission: to inspire each girl to fulfill her promise and to better the world. We continually challenge our community to dream, dare, and do.

Position Opening:

Primary responsibilities are likely to include teaching three sections of eighth grade social studies, including an immigration unit and one section of ninth grade world history as well as advising a group of 10-12 girls. This position entails the design, detailed planning and instruction of experiential, interdisciplinary and community-based curricula in the humanities. All middle school teachers demonstrate a commitment to diversity and to the education of girls. In addition, they must be committed to planning interdisciplinary experiences outside of the traditional classroom (in the City of Cleveland or at the Butler Campus) alongside other members of the grade-level team. Candidates with experience and/or an interest in teaching an elective in speech and debate are strongly encouraged to apply.

Duties and responsibilities may include:

- Membership on a grade level team, including attending weekly meetings to collaborate on the academic program
- Advising a group of middle school students, about 10-12, on their academic and social development
- Meeting with parents to discuss student progress
- Assessing all students and reporting regularly in detail, both in checklist and narrative form
- Participation in faculty and staff meetings
- Collaboration with colleagues in the same or a different discipline
- Completion of other duties as assigned such as participation in field trips and supervision during arrival, lunch and recess

Required Qualifications:

The successful candidate will hold a bachelor's or graduate degree with majors and/or extensive coursework in English, history and/or education and have at least 3-5 years teaching experience.

The successful candidate will also possess a positive attitude, excellent written and verbal skills, strong organizational skills, and proven success within a work setting that requires collaboration, cooperation, and collegiality. The candidate must possess or acquire and maintain a State of Ohio issued teaching certificate. Currently, interest in coaching speech or debate is especially welcomed. The school welcomes the opportunity to continue to find ways to diversify our faculty.

Salary:

Laurel offers competitive compensation and a comprehensive benefits package.

To Apply:

Interested candidates are encouraged to review Laurel's curricular philosophy at www.laurelschool.org. To apply for the position, please send the following to the address below:

- Cover letter reflecting why Laurel may be the best community for you and/or information on how you could further the goal of a culturally or academically diverse environment
