

FACULTY JOB DESCRIPTION

Position/Title: Upper School Hebrew Teacher (part-time)
Appointment: School Year 2017/2018
Reports To: Director of the Upper School

Laurel School is seeking talented faculty who will put our students first and strive to make a difference in their lives. We seek to attract culturally and academically diverse faculty who thrive on being engaged participants in our academic community. The most successful candidates see opportunities before problems and can laugh at themselves while succeeding in a fast-paced, forward-thinking educational environment. Laurel lives its mission: to inspire each girl to fulfill her promise and to better the world. We continually challenge our community to dream, dare, and do.

Position Opening:

We are seeking a dynamic and talented teacher for our Upper School Hebrew program, which serves students of novice to high-intermediate proficiency. The ideal teacher has the ability to teach an additional language offered at Laurel and is inspired to spur the Hebrew program forward. She or he emphasizes the use of the target language in class, is able to differentiate instruction based on learning styles, and uses a variety of assessment strategies. She or he will also need to collaborate with World Language teachers across divisions and participate in the implementation of an articulated language curriculum.

Duties and responsibilities include:

- Preparation and implementation of daily lessons
- Delivery of assignments and timely evaluation of all relevant class work and student progress
- Design and implementation of appropriate, authentic assessments and support of individual student learning styles
- Timely and proactive communication with parents about student progress
- Serving as an Advisor to small group of students
- Collaboration with other members of the faculty, administration and staff on experiential, interdisciplinary and community-based opportunities that add to the school community
- Active participation in all faculty and staff meetings
- Effective and timely communication with varied school constituencies in person, through email and through voice mail
- Support of divisional and school-wide initiatives through committee work, where appropriate
- Supervision and/or participation in non-academic activities, including lunch and study hall

Required Qualifications:

The successful candidate has native or near-native proficiency and experience teaching Hebrew at the secondary or post-secondary level. Native or near-native proficiency in, and ability to teach, another language offered at Laurel is highly preferred. She or he ideally holds an advanced degree in Hebrew (e.g., language, literature, pedagogy, etc.), possesses excellent English writing and speaking skills, and has basic information technology and computer skills. Previous experience teaching girls is helpful but not required, as is previous experience in a private educational setting. A passion for working with Upper School age students is essential.

Salary:

Laurel offers competitive compensation and a comprehensive benefits package.

To Apply:

Interested candidates are encouraged to review Laurel's curricular philosophy at www.laurelschool.org. To apply for the position, please send the following to the address below:

- Cover letter reflecting why Laurel may be the best community for you and/or information on how you could further the goal of a culturally or academically diverse environment
