

THE CHRIST PRIZE NOMINATION FORM

Established in honor of former NCGS Trustee and long-time visionary Head of Hathaway Brown School Bill Christ, this annual award is presented to a man or woman who has demonstrated commitment to extraordinary teaching, program design and/or curricular innovation in a member school. The recipient will reflect creative excellence, cutting edge programming, entrepreneurial teaching, and collaborative design in his/her teaching that characterized Bill Christ's own leadership style as the quintessential "educator's educator." The recipient will also reflect the principles for which NCGS stands, including a commitment to collaboration, imagination, leadership, opportunity, integrity, and self-efficacy.

Completed nomination forms should be sent to ncgs@ncgs.org with the subject line "CHRIST PRIZE NOMINATION." Submissions must be received by 3:00 p.m. EST on February 1, 2018. Only email submissions will be accepted. A committee of the NCGS Board of Trustees select the Christ Educator Prize recipient. Nomination materials for nominees not selected will be held for one year to be considered for the following year.
