

Comparison Chart of All-Girls Independent Schools' Policies on Transgender Students*

School or Organization Type	Are trans girls eligible for admission?	Are trans boys eligible for admission?	Are trans boys eligible to continue studies once enrolled?	Are students who disclose non-binary gender eligible for admission?	How is gender determined?	Case by case?
Girls' school; day; lower, middle, and upper grades	Yes	Not specified; likely no	Yes	Not specified	Gender identity and gender expression are both used.	Yes
Girls' school; day and boarding; upper grades	Yes, if the student has already transitioned, not if still questioning.	No	Sometimes: seniors yes, freshman no.	Not specified	Student self-identification	Yes
Girls' school; day; middle grades	Yes	No	Yes	No	Student self-identification
Girls' school; day; middle grades	Yes	No	Not specified; likely yes	No	Student self-identification
Girls' school; day and boarding; middle and upper grades	Yes	No	Sometimes: seniors yes.	No	Student self-identification and gender expression	Yes
Girls' school; day; lower, middle, and upper grades	Yes	No	Yes		Student self-identification	Likely

Girls' school; day; middle and upper grades	Yes	No	Likely until end of division.		Student self- identification	Likely
Girls' school; day; lower, middle, and upper grades	Yes, on a case by case basis.	No	Likely until end of division.	No	Student self- identification	Yes

 This document is a compilation of policies currently implemented at certain independent all-girls schools. Its contents are not intended, nor should they be construed, as offering legal advice or a reflection of any law, regulation, or statute on a federal or local level. The policy notes herein are taken solely from independent schools, and not from charter or public schools, which may be further affected by additional applicable laws and regulations. For questions regarding laws impacting your school, and the legal implications of your school's policy choices, please contact your legal counsel.*